1 6 interim study to review purchasing processes and
1 7 procedures utilized by the state and other public
1 8 entities within this state. The study shall include a
1 9 review of the model procurement act developed and
1 10 recommended by the American bar association, as well
1 11 as the purchasing practices and procedures of other
1 12 states and other public entities outside this state
1 13 which currently utilize purchasing processes and
1 14 procedures based on the model procurement act.
1 15 The membership of the interim study committee shall
1 16 be comprised of the following:
1 17 1. Representatives of each of the following:
1 18 a. Political subdivisions authorized to purchase
1 19 goods and services through the use of public bidding
1 20 procedures.
1 21 b. State agencies with independent purchasing
1 22 authority.
1 23 c. State agencies that purchase goods and services
1 24 through the department of administrative services.
1 25 d. The department of administrative services.
1 26 e. The office of the attorney general.
1 27 f. Vendors who provide goods and services to 1 28 public entities in this state.
1 29 2. Four members of the general assembly, two each
1 30 from the senate and the house of representatives.
1 31 The interim study committee shall provide regular
1 32 updates on its progress to the committees on
1 33 government oversight. The interim study committee
1 34 shall provide a final report, including any
